walk the Hill

10:30 a.m.
Sunday, May 14, 2017
Memorial Stadium
Lawrence, Kansas
Welcome

The event is steeped in tradition. An exuberant procession of graduates marches through the Memorial Campanile, down the Hill, and into Memorial Stadium, where the chancellor confers degrees on a new class of Jayhawks.

We are excited you will be a part of Commencement 2017 — taking your place in KU’s history as you take the first steps into your future.

This is your moment, graduates. Congratulations!

ACADEMIC REGALIA

At Commencement, faculty and graduating students wear traditional academic regalia to signify the degree-granting university and the wearer's level of achievement.

At KU, bachelor’s degree candidates wear traditional mortarboards with colored tassels and gowns with pointed sleeves.

Master’s degree candidates wear mortarboards with black tassels, gowns with square-cut sleeves, and draped hoods.

Doctoral candidates wear tams with short black tassels, gowns with bell-shaped sleeves, and draped hoods with a velvet edging.

University marshals and the chancellor wear distinctive regalia designed specially for KU. Honorary degree recipients wear the doctoral gown and hoods lined in white (Arts and Letters), purple (Laws), or gold (Science).

The tassels for bachelor’s degree candidates, the lining of the hoods for master’s degree candidates, and the velvet edging on the hoods for doctoral candidates are in colors that signify the wearer’s discipline.

BANNERS

School banners and class banners are a tradition stretching almost as far back as the university itself.

University Archives preserves class banners going back to 1873. Visit jayhawks.com/classbanners.

Senior class representatives Victor Alberto Lopez Nikolskiy and Alyssa Ruehl will carry the Class of 2017 banner ahead of the degree candidates.

The faculty of each school selects graduates who carry the school banner at the head of its section in the procession.

CEREMONIAL MACE AND COLLAR

Every year, the mace and collar — objects symbolizing authority and honor — are used in the Commencement ceremony.

KU’s mace and collar were created by Carlyle H. Smith (pictured), a professor of silversmithing, and first introduced at Commencement in 1964. The chancellor wears the silver collar bearing the university seal, and the university marshal carries the mace, carved from a stair railing of old Fraser Hall.
HONORARY DEGREE

KU awards honorary degrees to individuals who have made notable contributions to the sciences, arts, laws, or humanities.

The 2017 honorary degree recipient is KU alumnus William McNulty.

Our honorees change the way we see the world.

WILLIAM MCNULTY

William McNulty, a former U.S. Marine and Iraqi war veteran, co-founded Team Rubicon, a nonprofit that recruits military veterans to provide disaster relief and humanitarian aid around the world.

McNulty created Team Rubicon after organizing a team of military veterans to help with disaster response to the 2010 Haiti earthquake. In Haiti, McNulty recognized that veterans are uniquely equipped to provide emergency support and that his team could mobilize more quickly than large aid organizations.

Team Rubicon also offers a model for natural disaster relief and veteran reintegration. Today, the organization has 35,000 volunteers, 75 percent of whom are military veterans. McNulty also recently founded Team Rubicon Global, which provides relief services to 12 countries around the world.

McNulty holds a bachelor’s degree in economics and communication studies from the University of Kansas and a master’s degree in government from Johns Hopkins University.
An auspicious moment set in turbulent times.

The state of Kansas was just five years old and the Civil War had finally come to an end. Lawrence still bore the scars of William Quantrill’s 1863 raid, which left the city in ashes and killed nearly 200.

As the citizens of Lawrence rebuilt their community, they also determined to establish a university on the hill. In 1866, the University of Kansas welcomed its first students to Mount Oread.

Now, KU is the state’s flagship university, a national public research institution with a global reach.

Today, as we celebrate the achievements of our graduates, we also celebrate more than a century and a half of Jayhawk tradition, history, and accomplishments.

December 1872
Fraser Hall dedicated
The “new building” is completed. It will later be known as University Hall and, eventually, Fraser Hall.

April 1873
Presidential KU
Ulysses S. Grant is the first sitting president to visit.
Flora Richardson is KU’s first female graduate — and the first class valedictorian — among the four members of the Class of 1873.
July 1874
The chancellor who wasn’t
Chancellor-elect S.H. Carpenter, a University of Wisconsin professor, arrives in Lawrence during a summer heat wave and grasshopper infestation — and takes the next train back to Madison.

March 1878
Marvin Grove
On Arbor Day, students and faculty plant 300 trees on the slope of Mount Oread. The area will be called Marvin Grove, after Chancellor James Marvin, who inspired the beautification project.

March 1879
President Hayes visits
President Rutherford B. Hayes addresses faculty and students, but shortens his remarks after being winded by the climb to the top floor of University Hall.

March 1880
First medical course
At a meeting that could be considered the birth of the KU Medical Center, KU faculty vote to establish a preparatory or first-year medical course. In September, the first six students begin classes.

April 1917
U.S. enters WWI
The United States enters World War I. Though Chancellor Frank Strong had opposed U.S. involvement in the European conflict, once war is declared, the chancellor, faculty, and students throw themselves into the war effort.
In a Sept. 12, 1922, letter to parents, Chancellor Ernest Lindley asks them to discourage their children from bringing cars to campus because, he says, the automobile “is a menace to the democratic spirit of the school.”

October 1933

Flying for fun
Kansas native Amelia Earhart, the first woman to cross the Atlantic Ocean by plane, speaks to a large audience in Hoch Auditorium on “Flying for Fun.”

February 1934

Student work aid
As the Depression deepens, KU taps into President Franklin Roosevelt’s Federal Relief Administration to find students jobs and help keep them in school.
June 1934
Cunningham’s world record
Runner Glenn Cunningham, who graduated from KU five days earlier, sets a new world record in the mile run.

March 1935
Drought and dust
On March 20, 1935, a dust storm rolled across the KU campus, causing drivers to turn on their headlights in mid-afternoon.

June 1941
75th anniversary
KU celebrates 75 years with a universitywide exposition held during Commencement celebrations. “The 1866 era drug store, the demonstrations in chemistry, the medics’ iron lung, the engineers’ exhibits will thrill every visitor,” says one announcement.

December 1941
U.S. enters WWII
The United States enters World War II after the bombing of Pearl Harbor.

January–June 1942
KU during wartime
The university encourages students to serve their country by staying in school — but agrees to give some college credit for military service and to shorten the time to degree by implementing a trimester system.
1942

KU doctors volunteer
The U.S. Army’s 77th Evacuation Hospital Unit, made up largely of KU medical personnel, is activated in spring 1942.

1943

Strong Hall as barracks
Strong Hall becomes a barracks for sailors in training. By 1943, nearly 2,500 servicemen are enrolled in training programs on campus.

April 1974
The Human Cannonball

Four thousand people show up at Potter Lake to watch student Dan Wessel, calling himself “The Great Wessellini: The Human Cannonball,” attempt to launch himself over the lake inside a Plexiglas bubble.

May 1974
Yes, they call it the streak

Wearing open black robes and mortarboards — and nothing else — two Commencement streakers sprint the length of the football field just as Chancellor Archie Dykes tells the graduates that “the mark you leave upon the university is an indelible one.”

January 2015

President Obama visits

Barack Obama is the fourth sitting president — and the first since 1911 — to speak at KU.

2016

Central District redevelopment

The university’s largest redevelopment project in almost 100 years takes shape, providing a new hub of science, research, and education at the center of KU’s Lawrence campus.

2016

Bidding farewell

Bernadette Gray-Little announces she will step down as chancellor at the end of the academic year.
Now it’s official. You’ve joined a 150-year history filled with Jayhawks whose dreams and ideas have changed the world.

Celebrate, and step into your future.
Crimson and the Blue

Far above the golden valley
Glorious to view,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Towering toward the blue.

CHORUS:
Lift the chorus ever onward,
Crimson and the blue
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to old KU.

Far above the distant humming
Of the busy town,
Reared against the dome of heaven.
Looks she proudly down.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Greet we then our foster mother,
Noble friend so true,
We will ever sing her praises,
Hail to old KU.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

I’m a Jayhawk

Talk about the Sooners, Cowboys and the Bears,
Aggies and the Tiger and his tail.
Talk about the Wildcats, and the Cyclone boys,
But I’m the bird to make ‘em weep and wail.

CHORUS:
’Cause I’m a Jay, Jay, Jay, Jay, Jayhawk,
Up at Lawrence on the Kaw–
’Cause I’m a Jay, Jay, Jay, Jay, Jayhawk,
With a sis-boom, hip hoorah,
Got a bill that’s big enough
To twist a Tiger’s tail,
Rope some ‘Horns and listen
To the Red Raiders wail–
’Cause I’m a Jay, Jay, Jay, Jay, Jayhawk,
Riding on a Kansas gale.
